

THE BAKER'S WIFE

Book by Joseph Stein
Music and Lyrics by Stephen Schwartz
Directed by Jim Chaffin
November 6, 7, 8, 13, 14 & 15, 2009

Based on the 1940s French film Le Femme de Boulanger, The Baker's Wife is a story of love, life, temptation and redemption, all taking place in a small French town and centering around a baker and his young wife. The residents, and the town itself, play a role in shaping their lives. A 1976 touring show of The Baker's Wife featured Paul Sorvino and Patty LaPone in the lead roles, and the show has become a cult favorite without ever having made it to the Broadway stage.

L'Affaire Desare

Written and Directed by Bob Myers
February 19, 20, 21, 26, 27 & 28, 2010

Produced in cooperation with the Queensbury Hotel

GFCT is in cahoots once again with the Queensbury Hotel to produce our 11th Murder Mystery Dinner Theatre production. This time, it's a "drop party" for the latest CD by a well known local musician -- a collection of rock classics certified double-platinum even before it hits the stores. But a number of his former business associates, dysfunctional family members and a former girlfriend or two want a piece of the action -- most of whom are also certifiable!

by Noel Coward
Directed by Bill Woodward
April 30 and May 1 & 2, 2010

Novelist Charles Condomine has two problems on his hands: his late first wife Elvira, whose spirit is now haunting his home following a seance, and who appears only to him; and his second wife Ruth, who is the target of Elvira's ghostly torture. This popular play broke box office records in World War II-era London, and was adapted as the musical High Spirits starring Rex Harrison. A 2009 revival on Broadway netted a Tony Award for Angela Lansbury.

A Season of Change!

For almost seventy five years, Glens Falls Community Theatre has been providing quality entertainment to the residents of the greater Glens Falls area. We will produce two of our shows at the Charles R. Wood Theater in downtown Glens Falls: the Stephen Schwartz cult favorite The Baker's Wife, November 6, 7, 8, 13, 14 & 15, 2009, and the classic Noel Coward comedy Blithe Spirit, April 30 and May 1 & 2, 2010. We'll return to the Queensbury Hotel with L'Affaire DeSare, our eleventh murder mystery dinner theater production, on February 19, 20, 21, 26, 27 & 28, 2010. Tickets for ALL shows go on sale to the public September 15, 2009, so act now!

Beginning this year, Wood Tickets will be processing the orders and donations for GFC's 2009-2010 season. This means more convenience, and you'll be able to get choice tickets for our shows far earlier than in the past.

SEASON SUBSCRIBERS

receive one ticket to each of the season's shows.

By becoming a Season Subscriber, you can:

HAVE FIRST CHOICE OF SEATING before tickets go on sale to the general public;

AVOID BOX OFFICE LINES because we will hold your tickets for you until the night of the show.

ACTIVE MEMBERS - There are many ways you can get involved, not only by performing on-stage but also by contributing your energies back-stage and off-stage. Help us put on a great show, but you will also have a great time!

CONTRIBUTING PATRONS - The support of our patrons enables us to not only produce large on-stage productions, but also allows us to continue our popular outreach efforts including the Community Service Project. Contributions are tax deductible and you will be recognized as a supporter in each of the season's programs.

SCHOLARSHIP FUND - Each year we hold auditions and then award scholarships to several area students planning to continue their formal education in the theatre arts. This contribution is also tax deductible and listed in our programs. Memorial gifts are welcome; unless otherwise specified, those donations will be placed in our Scholarship Fund.
